

Mighty Writers Teen Scholars Program Application

Accepting Students in Grades 9-12

Program Description: The Mighty Writers Teen Scholars Program runs every Wednesday 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Students will learn how to hold academic discussions regarding current events and generate discourse on various topics. Students will acquire necessary tools and skills for future collegiate learning in the form of writing development, round table debates, and college visitation. Students will also be eligible for mentorships and access to workshops.

Students must attend the program all four Wednesdays every month to remain in good standing with the program.
